(a) checking whether or not all required credit and lending criteria, except for valuation of the property, are satisfied, wherein, if not satisfied, the loan application can be denied or returned to the applicant thereof, and wherein, if satisfied, the following step (b) is carried out;

(b) carrying out the following method:

(i) inputting the loan application into the computer system, the loan application containing the address of the real property;

(ii) providing the address of the property to an automated valuation model (AVM) system, for producing and returning valuation data for a real property in response to the provision of the address thereof;

(iii) receiving valuation data for the corresponding property from the AVM system;

(iv) determining a LoanCap for the corresponding property by applying a pre-determined lending policy to the valuation data and information provided in the loan application, the lending policy having been pre-set in the computer system, wherein the LoanCap comprises an amount determined by comparison of:

(1) a loan-to-value assessment of the requested loan amount in the loan application, in light of a declared property value in the loan application, provided that the declared property value can be substantiated by the valuation data;

(2) a high value limit set by the lender; and

(3) an amount representing the lender's worst case scenario taking into consideration a minimum property value according to the valuation data and the lender's costs if the applicant defaults on the loan; and

(v) comparing a requested loan amount in the loan application to the LoanCap, wherein, when the requested loan amount is within the LoanCap, the loan application can be approved, and

(vi) wherein, after the step (i), the steps (ii) to (v) are carried out automatically and electronically in the computer system.
